November Speaker – Stan Hieronymus

Stan Hieronymus has been writing about beer for 25 years, including four books from Brewers Publications written specifically for brewers. “Brewing Local: American Grown Beer” is the latest.

District News

Our October event was held at Schlafly – Bottleworks. It featured a technical presentation by Patrick Lombard of Briem Engineering. He discussed welding, fabrication, and repair from the Process Piping Considerations and Design. Patrick also made this presentation at the National Convention in Atlanta. We would like to extend our thanks to Patrick for presenting and Schlafly for hosting the event.

Local News

- Budweiser taps pre-Prohibition recipe sold only in St. Louis for new beer, Budweiser 1933 Repeal Reserve. Adolphus Busch created the amber lager in pre-Prohibition days for his friends and it was originally only sold in St. Louis, where the brewery was founded. The recipe hasn't been brewed by A-B since Prohibition ended. Read more at <http://www.stltoday.com/>
- Civil Life Plans for Expansion in Tower Grove South. Civil Life's proprietor, Jake Hafner, gave his annual State of the Beer Union address on the parking lot outside of his Tower Grove South business at 3714 Holt. He discussed current events, politics, brewing and, in his more-direct comments on the subject yet, the immediate future of Civil Life's expansion to the building directly north, the former home of St. Louis Auto Body.
