

Master Brewers Association of the Americas – District St. Louis

District Vice-President, Duties and Responsibilities

The District Vice President is an Officer of the District and member of the Executive Board, duly elected by the members.

The Vice-President shall back up the District President and serve in his or her absence in all of his or her responsibilities. In addition, the Vice President has the following duties:

- Serve as District Governor and attend the Association governance meetings.
- Chair the District Scholarship Committee
- Act in the best interests of the members of the District and the Association.